RE: Washington DC - Seagrave Aerial Ladder Refurbishments/Repair

Dear Gena,

This letter details Seagrave recommendations for Seagrave aerial ladders to be returned to the factory for refurbishment/repair.

Conditions identifying recommended Seagrave factory refurbishment/repair:

1. A Seagrave ladder section containing damage to welds of structural components which have been determined to be beyond the capability of a Seagrave customer service representative.
2. A Seagrave ladder section containing ironing, or material thinning due to corrosion or other means beyond .8 times of the original material thickness.
3. A Seagrave ladder section containing complete deterioration of any portion of a rail member due to corrosion.

Seagrave has a proprietary ladder design. In addition we have specialized fixtures and procedures designed specifically to build and refurbish the Seagrave unique ladder.
